Brokers see 50% upside for IRCTC stock despite Covid surge

Revenue estimated to grow by 15-16% annually over the next 5 years

The recent surge in Covid-19 cases in the country could prove an opportunity for Indian Railways Catering and Tourism Corporation (IRCTC), say analysts, and should act as a “profit windfall” in the coming months if the current resumption of private trains will likely continue. Yet, this has not deterred brokerages from its 52-week high level of Rs 155, as its 52-week high was Rs 122. The brokerages see an upside potential of 10-20% for IRCTC.

On the back of these developments, the stock has rallied by over 21% over the last three months. IRCTC has a monopolistic position in the railcat category, and should help IRCTC cater to 85 per cent of the railcat category. Multiple revenue levers are available, which is the most relevant segment of the 2021 business model. Another sustainable lever for the company is an increase in volume of railcat tickets. This is expected to continue in the future. Moreover, many Indian Railways has granted IRCTC the opportunity to sell railcat tickets for the first time this year.

The purpose of a factor-based fund is to invest in factors that have historically influenced stock returns over a long period of time. The idea is to capture market sentiment and avoid the risk of underperformance. Some advisors say they are willing to bet on the success of these strategies.
